

Artist Statement

Eva Sköld Westerlind

Solitary Traveler Series

In my fine art photography I play with perspective, illusion and scale. Solitary Traveler is a series of black and white photographs where I use the pinhole camera to capture a small figure in fabricated settings, creating scenes about a journey through life.

Although these images are portraits of my personal inner journey, inspired by my dreams and childhood memories, perhaps they also represent any of us as we work our way through life, with its joys, hazards and horrors.